THE HOUR OF REMEMBRANCE.

This is the hour of grateful remembrance for every living American, the old and the young, the man, the woman, the child. The old, because they have the deeper knowledge of the dreadful war of which this day is the anniversary, the keener enlightenment of the tremendous sacrifices of those awful days, the wider estimate of the glorious results achieved. The young because they are the possessors of the magnificent heritage handed down to them by the sires that bled and died to preserve the patrimony and made it feasible for the young to live, prosper and exult in a land that calls for every tribute of honor and praise. To the heroes that lie in the countless graves a grateful country marks this day with the emblems of its perpetual pride and thankfulness, will go forth a paean of deep and silent gratitude from all sources and classes, the just measure and expression of the holiest impulse a nation can know. To the living group of heroes that remain with us, every sign and manifestation of that same profound sense of obligation must be made, and it will be made, from one end of the country to the other, in all the consciousness of a debt vast, irredeemable and perennial. Astoria withholds no atom of its reverential duty this day.

WHY DIVIDE THE POWER?

Mr. Chamberlain says it would be the best for Oregon to elect a republican legislature and a democratic governor! Why? Does he rely upon the appointing power vested in the governor to pay all his campaign debts? Does he rely upon the veto power to pay such as the other prerogative cannot reach? Does he assume to be the whole front, back and status of the democracy of Oregon, that he dictates such a policy, or is it just the desire for office gone daft and egotism run mad? Whatever it is, it is farcical. Just why the power and prestige of republican Oregon should be divided with the minority party of the state, no man, except he be a democrat with an itch, may say. There was never a time in the history of partizan politics in Oregon when the preservation of the republican voting strength should be preserved and exercised with such rigorous and conservative power as in the present campaign. The main, solitary idea involved is the restitution of the dominant party to power. That done in every department of administrative work, from the governor's office to the last and uttermost of the constabulary of the state, there will be ample time for considering the division that Mr. Chamberlain is so anxious about; then, a division can be made more in harmony with the "non-partizan" quality of what he would do in the way of division if he might be re-elected governor; then, indeed, as a further testimonial of his exceedingly broad and disinterested administration and the many evidences he has given of his freedom from partizan influence and predisposition, perhaps HE might be appointed to one of the numerous, unsalaried posts of honor with which the statutory regimen of Oregon abounds. But, as to electoral division, NEVER, GEORGE!

"YES", OR "NO"?

Is Astoria to have that new hotel, made possible by the energy and industry of Mayor Wise?

Yes, or no must be the answer and it must come with some sort of snap or the opportunity will pass!

It is a question that will test the enterprise of the city and its capacity for assimilating a good thing.

The pride of Astoria should induce the readiest possible affirmative to such a proposition and the quicker it goes forth to the men who are waiting for it, the better it will be for them and for the city. To negative such a proposal is confession of lethargy, and business supineness is no recommendation to outside capital seeking investment here. Snap it up with a go that means something, and proves it!

HOW LONG, OH! LORD? HOW LONG?

Is it not about time the property owners of Astoria and Clatsop county were taking due and effective notice of the judgeship of this county? Are they quite satisfied with the reckless extravagance that prevails in the most responsible office of the county? Is nothing to be done to conserve the extraordinary expenditures of public money in this county? Are there no limitations on the outgo of public moneys in Clatsop? Or is it a matter of supreme indifference to the men who put up the great bulk of this money in burdensome taxes? These five questions are worth considering, and amenable to an answer. And the answer must be made on next Monday. It is up to the Clatsop taxpayer, and the best and only answer he can make, in his own behalf, is a vote for J. A. Eakin.

LEAVE IT TO WASHINGTON.

Since Washington is seeking to scoop about six-sevenths of the majestic Columbia, from its bar, on the west, to the Idaho line, and has gone into the supreme court of the land with its hog-gish plea, perhaps it may be as well to let her take care of the great bar that lies across its sea mouth, and cease to worry ourselves as to whether there are nineteen feet or twenty-four feet, of water on it at low tide. She, together with a certain group of men in Portland, with T. R. Wilcox at their head, will always scrap for Puget Sound, anyway; and the bottling up of the lower Columbia being their fixed purpose (in conjunction with the O. R. & N. Company), would be the easier to achieve if the north-shore state be invested with all the territory and the manipulation thereof. Astoria might still be permitted to sit quietly and watch the procession go by!

EDITORIAL SALAD.

If he is executed it will not be the first time that General Stoessel has lost his head.

This is the season when the vegetarian can afford to laugh at the meat packer's troubles.

The czar may "regret" to acknowledge the Japanese protectorate of Corea, but it will be far better for him than to have his generals again "regret to report."

The President is reported as friendly with Senator Aldrich again. Senator Aldrich will be all right so long as he does not get to using the White House telephone.

As to that half-million-dollar "sun parlor" that John D. Rockefeller is building on Kuknit—can it be that Mr. Rockefeller has set out to corner the sunflower?

To learn cheerfulness, live in Boston, where the papers are proudly claiming a baseball championship for the greatest number of defeats in history on the home grounds.

The more we learn of the Russian soldier, especially when he declines to obey orders to use ball cartridges, the more we appreciate Bernard Shaw's chocolate-cream soldier.

The demand for woman suffrage in England grows shriller day by day, and the canny "C-B." must begin to think that, with Ireland, South Africa, the trades unions and the schools all on his hands at once, the addition of the feminine cry of "No vote, no taxes!" is, in the late A. Ward's phrase, "2 mutch."

Rev. Dr. George Hagen, formerly chief astronomer at Georgetown university, will assume his duties as astronomer at the vatican June 1. His appointment came upon recommendation from the foremost scientists of Europe and America. He is an Austrian by birth and an American by adoption. Born in Brezeng in 1847, he entered the Society of Jesus at 16 and finished at Munster and Bonn. In 1880 he came to the United States, and eight years later received his appointment at Georgetown, where he devoted his efforts to stellar photography in which his research has made him of the first rank. His stellar charts are standard and his astronomical works of the highest value.

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by Frank Hart, and leading druggist.

URGE ADOPTION.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The Merchants' Association yesterday sent a telegram to the Senate and House conference committee on the Railroad Rate bill and to the New York City delegation in Congress, urging the adoption of the Senate amendments to the bill making express and sleeping car companies common carriers and prohibiting common carriers from limiting their liability to bills of lading.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

The haphazard use of a remedy will never discover its efficacy. Try Beecham's Pills morning and night, and note the improvement in your health.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 50c.

NEED DUPLICATE CERTIFICATES.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Chinese residents who were burned out during the recent fire will sustain a still further loss, it is said, that may reach as high as $50,000 or $60,000. They must obtain from the government at Washington duplicate certificates of legal residence in the United States.

About 6000 of the certificates were destroyed, according to an estimate made by officials of the Chinese bureau. The loss falls upon the Chinese alone, as upon them rests the necessity, when ever occasion may arise, of proving the right to remain here. Without his certificate, any Chinaman belonging to the excluded classes would be subject to deportation at any time.

Exposure

The cold draughts of air, to keen and cutting winds, sudden changes of the temperature, scanty clothing, undue exposure of the throat and neck after public speaking and singing, bring on coughs and colds.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best cure. Mrs. A. Barr, Houston, Tex., writes, Jan. 31, 1902: "One bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup cured me of a very bad cough. It is very pleasant to take. Sold by Hart's drug store."

EDITOR PASSES AWAY.

ANSLAND, Pa., May 29.—J. Irvin Steel, editor and proprietor of the Evening Telegram died yesterday of stomach trouble. He was 70 years old. Four of his sons are proprietors of newspapers at Minersville, Pa.; Shamokin, Pa., and Seattle, Wash. The first paper published in the Klondike country was founded several years ago at Nome by his son, Harry Steele.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Mrs. Josie Sumner, Bremond, Tex., writes, April 15, 1902. "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with good success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00.

A complexion fair men like to see, So girls take this advice, Don't hesitate to think it o'er, Drink Rocky Mountain Tea. Frank Hart, Druggist.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE WILL CURE any case of KIDNEY or BLADDER DISEASE that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.

WAS GIVEN UP TO DIE. B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."
